

Mr. President : Similarly article 211. The question is:

“That article 211 be deleted.”

The motion was adopted.

Article 211 was deleted from the Constitution.

Article 197

Mr. President : Shall we take up article 212 ?

Shri T. T. Krishnamachari : Article 188 may be taken up; it has got to be deleted.

The Honourable Dr. B. R. Ambedkar : I was suggesting that articles 188 and 278 may be taken together. It would be better if the whole thing is explained.

Mr. President : Then, we shall take up article 197.

The Honourable Dr. B. R. Ambedkar : Sir, I move.

“That for article 197, the following article be substituted:-

Salaries, etc,                      ‘197. (1) There shall be paid to the Judges of each High Court such salaries as of Judges,                      are specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) Every Judge shall be entitled to such allowances and to such rights in respect of leave of absence and pensions as may from time to time be determined by or under law made by Parliament, and until so determined, to such allowances and rights as are specified in the Second Schedule:

Provided that neither the allowances of a Judge nor his rights in respect of leave of absence or pension shall be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment.’ ”

This section corresponds to the other article which related to the Supreme Court Judges.

Mr. President : There is an amendment by Pandit Kunzru.

[Amendments 20, 21 and 22 of List I (Second Week) Were not moved.]

Mr. President : There is no amendment moved to this. I shall put to vote the article as moved by Dr. Ambedkar today.

The question is:

“That for article 197. the following article be substituted

Salaries, etc,                      ‘197. (1) There shall be paid to the Judges of each High Court such salaries as of Judges                      are specified in the Second Schedule.

(2) Every Judge shall be entitled to such allowances and to such rights in respect of leave of absence and pension as may from time to time be determined by or under law made by Parliament, and until so determined, to such allowances and rights as are specified in the Second Schedule:

Provided that neither the allowances of a Judge nor his rights in respect of leave of absence or pension shall be varied to his disadvantage after his appointment.’ ”

The amendment was adopted.

Article 197, as amended, was added to the Constitution.
