

[Shri T. T. Krishnamachari]

Dr. Ambedkar's amendment is substantially the same; it deletes clause (2) and only retains clause (1).

Dr. P. K. Sen : I do not want to move that amendment.

(Amendments Nos. 2651, 2652 and 2653 were not moved.)

Mr. President : The question is:

"That for article 198, the following article be substituted:—

'198. When the office of Chief Justice of a High Court is vacant or when any such Chief Justice is, by reason of absence or otherwise, unable to perform the duties of his office the duties of the office shall be performed by such one of the other judges of the court as the President, may appoint for the purpose.' "

Temporary appointment of Acting Chief Justice.

The motion was adopted.

Mr. President : The question is:

"That article 198, as amended, stand part of the Constitution."

The motion was adopted.

Article 198, as amended was added to the Constitution.

Article 199

Mr. President : There are some amendments which want the article to be deleted. I do not take them as amendments. Amendment No. 2656 is one of a drafting nature.

Mr. President : The question is:

"That article 199 stand part of the Constitution."

The motion was negatived.

Article 199 was deleted from the Constitution.

Article 200

(Amendment No. 2657 was not moved.)

Shri Jaspat Roy Kapoor (United Provinces : General) : Mr. President, Sir, I beg to move:

"That in article 200, for the words 'The Chief Justice of a High Court' the words 'The President' be substituted."

To this amendment, Sir, I beg to move another amendment and that is this:

"That in article 200 after the words 'at any time', the words 'with the previous consent of the President' be inserted."

The article, when amended would read thus:—

"Notwithstanding anything contained in this Chapter the Chief Justice of a High Court may at any time, with the previous consent of the President request any person who has held the office of a Judge of that court to sit and act as a judge of the court and every such person so requested shall, while so sitting and acting, have all the jurisdiction, powers and privileges of, but shall not otherwise be deemed to be, a judge of that court."

Prof. Shibban Lal Saksena : Do you drop the proviso?

Shri Jaspat Roy Kapoor : I have not come to that yet. It is not necessary for me to read it. I only want to deal with amendments for the time being to the first para of article 200. I will come to the question of deletion of the proviso later on.
